DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For State Senator,
W. R. HOWELL.
For Representative,
ALEXANDER CAMPBELL.
For Sup't. of Schools,
S. L. FROGGE.

Civic Council Ticket.

First Ward — R. H. Holland.
Second Ward — J. M. Fortune.
Third Ward — G. M. Campbell.
Fourth Ward — F. W. Dabney.
Fifth Ward — E. W. Walker.
Sixth Ward — E. M. Flack.
Seventh Ward — W. A. P'POOL.

There were 42,275 paid admissions to the Fair Oct. 31, although it was officially closed the day before.

The Danville Advocate says a colored candidate for councilman in the First ward of that city selected a cook for his device.

According to the last census reports there are in the United States over 3,000,000 men over 30 years old, who have never married.

Ber. E. Bagby has been chosen chaplain of the House to fill a vacancy. He is a young Washington minister of the Christian denomination.

It is said that 25 of the babies checked in the baby room at the World's Fair, were not called for and will have to be sent to an Orphan's Asylum.

Editor W. W. Martin, of the "Edenville Tale of Two Cities," is abed with a broken leg, the result of a runaway. He lay in the woods eight hours before he was found.

President Cleveland signed the repeal bill Wednesday afternoon and it is now law the nation. The next thing now is the silver legislation promised by Mr. Wilson.

The legislative day of October 17 lasted until the night of October 30 in the United States Senate. Frequent recesses were taken and adjournment was had during all that time.

Visitors still admitted to the World's Fair, the cost of a ticket to the fair is well under $10. The Kentucky building has been permanently closed and is advertised for sale.

Colgate Powers has assigned 20 gingers and storekeepers to work for the next six days, but no local interests attach to the list it is not given. The storekeepers-gingers are left unchanged.

Adelina Patti is coming to America to make her regular periodical farewell tour. She will begin a twomonths tour of the principal cities, at $500 a concert.

THE FIRST PREMIUM.

Anheuser-Busch Carry off the Blue Ribbon at the World's Fair.

The great plant of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Company of this city may now be appropriately decorated with miles of bunting, flags, etc., as it had the highest award in the power of the World's Fair Jury on awards to confer, and the prize for the best beer was placed upon the St. Louis establishment of which is known around the world over.

Out of hundreds of competitors for the premium, and out of hundreds of the finest displays of brews from each and every section of the country, the Colgate Cup, which selected the amber fluid exhibited by the Anheuser-Busch Company as the most deserving, growth of taste, and of manner could admit of no doubt as to the award.

Mr. Powell's intense earnestness and established record showed excellent judgment on the part of the members of the jury, who are experts in this particular line, in a foregone conclusion, and that the great honor was well deserved. The judges say, "We are the best turned out and the Anheuser-Busch establishment has been held in the highest esteem by the beer drinking public. It possesses all the good qualities which make the beverage a popular one and none of the bad qualities which tend to provoke unfavorable criticism."

Miss Daisy Gresham, aged twenty-three years, daughter of ex-Attorney Gen. Hartwell, committed suicide at her home in Washington Sunday afternoon, by shooting herself through the head. She was a failure.

Miss Gresham's private life has been subject to much speculation and has been suffering from religious melancholia.

The remains of Chicago's murdered Mrs. Carter C. Harrison were permitted to lie in state Wednesday and 100,000 people viewed the body. An immense procession followed the body to the grave. It has been settled that President, the assassin was a crazy rascal, but the public did not care to make him to be hanging him.

The concluding clause of the Sherman Silver Bill was unconstitutionally repealed on Oct. 30, after 61 days of debate. The speeches delivered made five large volumes of the Congressional Record. The vote stood 48 to 32 with five pairs, making the whole vote of 93 to 34. The bill was passed by a vote of 192 to 94. It only needs the President's signature to become law.

Mr. Moore, the author of the bill, and Mr. Cleveland's confidante believe there is scarcely a doubt that he can be induced to sign the bill, if the proper influences are brought to bear upon him.

How to Vote.

The unlawful manner in which the County Clerk has printed the ballots for use in the city precincts makes the casting of votes in the polls of the hotel and restaurant, where they have it on their wine lists. The United States Army has at all of the camps throughout the country, and not a ship of the United States may leave port without a supply. Physicians recommend it to them as a large, the clerk has ignored his orders and written protest, and has placed their names upon the county ballot as candidates contrary to the plain provisions of the law.

Review the worth of each to choose one whom you would only one makes those who vote for more than one assume the methods of the common reporter. Of course a little malice of violating the law does not interfere with the action of the Republican politician, but in order that the Democrats may not become parties to a fraud, the following plan of marking their tickets is suggested:

Stamp on the ballot paper opposite the name of Hood, Campbell and Frogge and not under the name.

If you stamp under the rooster you vote for the illegal portion of the alleged election fraud. This no Republican candidate can do.

About 700 households of tobacco were sampled this week and there were a number of private sales. Private sales are satisfactory to the buyers and the "open" houses more popular along, although the sales at the Exchange have been discontinued until the new crop is ready for the market.

Mrs. Isidore E. Bard, wife of Mr. Luther Bard of Muhlenberg county, was adjudged the most beautiful lady at a just held beauty contest at the Asylum. Mrs. Bard had been in bad health for some time and was brought to this country about a month ago to visit relatives, with the hope that a change would do her good. Her physician thought it dangerous to take her back to her home, hence the new was ordered, passed upon in this country.

The dairyman's residence on the farm of Mr. Geo. E. Green, near Wool's Mill, was burned Wednesday morning. John Wall, the dairyman, was at the scene of the fire with his wife and three children being in the house. They exerted themselves to save the furniture from the bed-room, but the entire furniture was destroyed. The house is a small cottage of only two or three rooms and was owned by Mr. Green.

Rev. A. C. Biddle, of Hopkinsville, arrived here last Monday night and is assisting the Rev. Anthony in a series of meetings which are becoming very popular.

Mr. Biddle is a forcible speaker, and his line of presenting the Bible truth is very attractive, being in some degree different from the usual, and he will have a decided audience.

He is a young man, the name of whom the occasion is known, and is dictated that it will be a meeting not only of much interest but great good in turning people from serving Satan to the true God.—Strides Enterprise

McKee, The Grover received a telegram from the American Booksellers Association Monday evening stating that they had carried off the blue ribbon at the World's Fair, having taken first premium for the best beer on exhibition. There were one hundred competitors, and the competition came from nearly every state in the Union.

Full particular can be had by reference to an article clipped from the Globe-Democrat, which appears elsewhere in this issue. McKee, The Grover, is a sole agent for this popular brand in this country.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor for the coming State Convention will meet Tuesday night in the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

The program will consist of a series of addresses by Rev. J. Z. Tyler, pastor of the Euclid Avenue Christian Church, Cleveland, Ohio.

He is a member of the Board of Education, and is a man of great ability and knowledge.

The L. & N. is offering a round-trip ticket to New York of $2.25, tickets returning at $1.12. This low rate will hold good until mid-November.

The hunting season is on and Pyle & Roush are putting their dogs to good use advertising their business, and will be soon seen in ad. in our special column this issue. Read it.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Louis Car Line will appear in their new uniforms last Sunday for the first time. The stylish suits were greatly admired by all who saw them. The uniforms were planned by Mrs. McCall, whose excellent taste in tailoring is well known.

The reduction was evident in view of the fact that the uniforms were too large for some time past.

The action will have the effect of greatly reducing the price of this article among our retail dealers.

THE LATE DUKE ERNST II.

In this way accumulated considerably with wealth and prominence. The late Duke Ernest II, son of the duchess of Kent, mother of Queen Victoria, was the brother of Queen Victoria. One of the grandsons of King George III, he was the sort of the late queen of Portugal and after her death, in 1853, for some time resided in Brazil. His numerous alliances connected Duke Ernest also with the royal house of Denmark, thus having a large influence in the affairs of the imperial house of Brazil.

In Germany, Duke Ernest II was the most important man.

He was the first to advocate German unity with Austria.

An ardent admirer of the old cause and Bismarck, he helped to bring several German states into the German confederation which would have been welcomed by any patriotic world.

His personal appearance was striking. He looked like a prince, and his military style was impressive.

He was a man of great energy.

His personal life was interesting.
